DAY 84
IN THIS WORLD,
NOT OF THIS WORLD

“At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent.”

Daniel 6:4 (NIV)

Hmm... This is definitely tough and maybe seem impossible these days. Daniel had no scandal, no evidence of negligence or misconduct, not even one! Wow!

Sometimes the availability of Grace makes it feel like we don't have to work towards living a Holy life. We don't have to indulge in unholy acts like cheating in exams, taking bribes, scamming customers, getting late to work, etc. When we do these things we give unbelievers grounds to question and even criticize our faith and in this we are not bringing glory to His name.

Our scripture reading for today shows clearly that it is possible to live right in this world despite the pressure to conform. We have the backing of the Holy Spirit to do this. Let's maximize this.
